

BAND AGREEMENT LIST OF QUESTIONS

Bob D'Eith
D'Eith & Company
Music Law
(604) 675-6227
rdeith@shaw.ca

Please consider all of these issues and answer each question:

What is the purpose of the partnership? Recording, songwriting, touring, merchandise - one or all of the above?

Is this going to be a company (limited) or a partnership? Is the company or partnership registered?

What are the full names and addresses of each of the band members?

Contributions? Money? Loan or investment? Payback?

Third party contributions? Loans or investment.

Group name. Who is to own? If someone leaves, what happens with the band name?

Copyrights? Are the masters and songs going to be with the company?

Insurance? Obligation to maintain gear and liability insurance

Equipment. Owned by band or individuals? Leased to band? Repairs? Strings and sticks?

Share in profits? Equal or unequal?

Limitations? No moonlighting, non-competition, agreeing to majority decisions?

Songwriting? What is the songwriting split? Is the band going to own the songs or the songwriters?

Group issues:

Leaving Member, new member, temporary substitution of member, buying out member, death of member, disability of member, mental incapacity of member, family law order, drug use or other addiction issues

Dissolving band? What would cause band to break up?

Liabilities? Third parties or contracts?

Please think about these things before we meet.